

CAREER PATHWAYS - ASSESSMENT

Make a list of all the obstacles you have on this career path. Separate the list by two categories:

Practical. Practical would be situations like not having enough money to get the training you need or to move where you need to be for this job (or for the training/college).

Emotional. Emotional could be that you just do not know how to get on this career path, or someone else is holding you back whether it be intentionally (unsupportive parents or spouse) or unintentionally (you have a child), or you do not believe you are smart enough to follow your career path.

Now, email GITG@LearningLifeCo.Org with your list – we'll keep it anonymous. If we have everyone's list then we can work to make changes in your community or state and try to tear down some of these obstacles for you and others who feel the same as you.

You may not know this, but adults actually have committee meetings to discuss these issues and the future of your generation. They start local in a town then they work with the state, who then works with the federal government. They do want to help and so do we, Learning Life Company.

Then, share your list with your Advisor (or someone else you trust if it's too personal) and together you can make a plan to tear down these obstacles!

"It is inevitable that some defeat will enter even the most victorious life. The human spirit is never finished when it is defeated... it is finished when it surrenders."

"Opportunity is missed by most people because it is dressed in overalls and looks like work."

Thomas A Edison

"People are always blaming their circumstances for what they are. I do not believe in circumstances. The people who get on in this world are the people who get up and look for the circumstances they want, and if they cannot find them, make them."

George Bernard Shaw
